ENGLISH OUTPLAY AMERICAN TEAM

Win First Leg on International Polo Cup by Score of 81/2 to 3.

CROWD OF 40,000 ATTENDS

Combination Plays Worked Rapidly by Visitors-Spectators Are Dumbfounded.

DY JAMES S. MITCHEL.

Meadowbrook, Park Westbury, L. I., June 12.—England won the first leg on the Westchester cup at Meadowbrook to-day by the score of 8 1-2 to 3. Leaving out the light, the color, shade and grandeur of the affair, the contest is easy enough to describe, for the youngest onlooker in the crowd of 40,-600 persons had the same idea as the most grizzled veteran of the game of It is this:

Americans were outhit, outgeneraled, and, to put it mildly, were never prominently in it from the first to last. Another thing that stunned everybody-was how did the Englishmen cloak the speed of their ponies since they land-ed here. The string they let loose in the field this afternoon was little short of marvelous. In short, the ponies galloped rings around the ponies of the Americans, and what was still more mysterious, the English animals stayed to the last stroke.

The English worked several combination plays on the "Big Four," and they were executed with such rapidity that the American were frequently thrown out of position when they least expected. The newest thing in the line of team play was a sort of wedge with Nos. 1 and 2 guarding No. wedge, with Nos. 1 and 2 guarding No. 8, as he worked in the centre. Tom-kinson and Cheape kept a sharp eye on Barrett, and gave him all the op-portunity possible to do his hitting, and when he got the chance for a long drive, they rode ahead of him like furtes, to be in the front for a charge

When it did happen that the ball rolled toward the American goal to the liking of the Englishmen, they interchanged shots, and rode hard in the effort to score. AMERICAN KEEPS CIRCLING

Of course, the shooting did not always go to the ideas of the Englishmen, for Milburn did all in his power to keep Barrett from making his passing shots, and the American kept circling around the Irishman in one continuous callon.

cling around the Irishman in one continuous gallop.
During the eight chukkers, Milburn burned up some galloping fibre, but he did not mind, as there were plenty of strong ponies on the American side, and anyway it was to gallop in the international that they have been prepared for the past year. Now and again Larry Waterbury took a hand at obstructing Barrett, but he was not very successful. The Irishman is an elusive character, and he frequently wriggled away from Larry, and very often with the ball in his possession.

away from Larry, and very often with the ball in his possession.

When the position to interchange with Lockett offered itself, Barrett would fall away to the back position, while Lockett would gallop up after the ball. The job at back seemed to suit the English leader, for he was so active and watchful that no shot passed him.

To pick the star of the English team is rather a difficult job. The four played well, and each grandly to his position. Still the crowd thought Cheape did the lion's share of the riding, and he had the honor of making a new record for international polo. In the fourth chukker, he shot a goal in 10 seconds, and this supplants the old mark of 24 seconds, made by Fox-hall P. Keene in the first match in Barrett played a great game in the centre field and no grander international back than Lockett has ever been seen. Tomkinson showed himself to be a veritable bear up in front.

There was little doubt about the best man on the American team, and the crowd gave the realists Larry Western the conditions and the conditions are the second gave the sealing to Larry Western the conditions are the sealing to the sealing to the conditions are the sealing to the sealing goals; America, 0.

Second period—The ball was thrown in from the side line. Lamontagne made a good run, but missed on the goal. Two good attempts for America followed. After several exchanges of territory and some fast galloping the Americans rushed for the English line, and "Monty" Waterbury shot a goal on the forward offside. England lost a half when Lockett crossed Milburn. America lost a half goal on a foul cross, leaving the tally in favor of England 31-2 goals to 1-2 goal.

Third period—At the commencement of the chukker there was a long argument over a claim of cross by America in the second chukker. After the ball was put in play a few cross shots by Barrett sent the ball to Tomkinson, who scored easily. There were a few good changes by the Americans, one of which forced Lockett to make a safety hit, losing a quarter of a goal. Tomkinson missed three goals, and Cheape missed one. The score at this stage was: England, 21-4 to 1-2 goals for America. In hitting and playing for position the English were easily the best.

Fourth period-The ball was thrown Fourth period—The ball was thrown in from the east guard rail. Cheape quickly got hold of it, and shot it between the posts with a clever offside shot. There was some fast riding, after which Monty Waterbury passed up to Lamontagne, and he tapped the ball out for a handy goal. It was the first goal for the new international. BOTH TEAMS TRIFLE LATE

IN COMING ON THE FIELD

The teams were a trifle late in coming on the field. When Referee Stoddard bounced the ball in, there was a rush, and Larry Waterbury scooped out the ball.

After a few cross shots Lockett got it, and in three shots cracked the sphere the whole length of the field, and sont it over with a forward off-side stroke. After the ball had been brought up, Tomkinson passed to Cheape, who shot the second goal on the forward off-side. With two minutes to play, Milburn was thrown heavily. He was up again in an instant and play was resumed.

When the bell rang, ending the chukker, the English had the Americans on the defensive. The crowd was dumfounded. WEEKLY MOTORCYCLE RUN TO GAYTON MINES

Local Motorcyclists to Compete in Endurance Run to Staunton.

July 4.

The Old Dominion Motor Cycle Club will have its weekly run to-day to Gayton Coal Mines. The members will meet at Reservoir Park at 9 o'clock, and as the majority of them have agreed to go, it is expected that this will be one of the best attended and most pleasant runs of the season.

On July 4 the club will hold an endurance run to Staunton, Va., and return.

Quite a number of very handsome prizes will be given for the run, and it is expected that about thirty members will participate. The boys are much interested in this run, and several of the newer members are getting up at daybroak and practicing up, declaring they are going to make the old riders make the ride of their life to win.

At the club meeting to-morrow it is hoped that all members expecting to participate in the endurance run will be present in order to sign up the entry blanks.
